PRINCIPALS

Strange, but there's a change In how the people walk these days
Say what e'er you may It's in the air without a doubt

Yes! you must confess That ev - er since the danc - ing craze Ev - ry -
You will do it too, Be - fore you know what you're a - bout, You'll be voice that seems to haunt me, when the shades of night ap - pear, 'Tis the hand stretch'd out for mer - cy, with a plea to eve - ry man, 'Tis the mourn - ful voice of Bel - gium ring - ing in my ear.

call for help from Bel - gium ans - wer, if you can.

REFRAIN (with feeling)

I hear the voice of Bel - gium cal - ling far a - cross the sea I speak of wives and moth-ers wait-ing pa - tient - ly I hear the cries of chil-dren pray-ing, sad as they could be, I can hear them say, "Please send my Dad-dy back to me."
